

Elvaston WI June 13th

Our speaker for June was Keith Blood. It turned out that the talk we had advertised as 'Gorgeous Jitties and Gingerbread' was actually 'Georgians, Jitties and Gingerbread'!! So much for modern technology! It was a very interesting and amusing talk, accompanied by slides, about historical Ashbourne. Keith was born in Ashbourne and had a large selection of interesting facts which even those who thought they knew the town had never heard before. He could have gone on a lot longer than the time allowed so invited himself back some time in the future. We will look forward to that.

The tombola stall at the Village Fete raised £115. A donation was made to the Sensory Garden Project.

The County Quiz, previously cancelled due to bad weather, will take place on Friday 6th September at Shardlow Village Hall.

The next walking group outing will be around Melbourne on Tuesday 25th June. meet at the Harrington at 10.30am.

Iris asked or volunteers to provide cakes for an open day at Fire Brigade Headquarters, Ascot Drive, on Saturday 29th June.

On 11th July our speaker will be Susan Hyde with 'Colour Me Beautiful'. We certainly hope she can! Why not come along?
